

Oil Processor

Warranty

The Oil Processor oil cleaning system is warranted to the original end consumer or user to be free from defects in material and workmanship, and to provide continuous oil cleaning performance for a period of two years from the date of purchase, provided that:

1. the Oil Processor is properly installed and kept so without any modification or alteration pursuant to the installation manual;
2. the Oil Processor is maintained in accordance with the prescribed service intervals, including recommended replacement of the filter element, rubber gasket and copper washer;
3. the Oil Processor is installed and maintained on an engine or other equipment which is in normal running and mechanical condition at the time of installation and which continues to be properly maintained in accordance with the engine or equipment manufacturer's recommended service intervals (other than recommended oil changes);
4. the Oil Processor is installed on an engine or other equipment in which a high quality brand of oil is used which contains a substantial additive package.

Clean Oil Technology AB or its local representative will repair or replace, at its options, any unit which is determined by the company to be defective in materials and workmanship or not performing properly during the two year warranty period.

This warranty applies only to products purchased directly from Clean Oil Technology AB or its authorized representative, and extends only to the original consumer or user. Specifically excluded from the warranty are products which have been subject to neglect, abuse or improper application, equipment which have been repaired or adjusted by persons other than authorized or contractual Clean Oil Technology AB service representatives, and Clean Oil Technology AB products in which parts or products other than manufactured or supplied by Clean Oil Technology AB have been used.

Clean Oil Technology AB shall not be liable for any other consequential damages or breach of any written or implied warranty and the company neither assumes nor authorizes any other person to assume for the company any other liability in connection with the sale of the product. The duration of any implied warranty is limited to the period of this express warranty.

This warranty gives such purchaser specific legal rights and the purchaser may also have other rights, which may vary from country to country, or state to state.
